OVER 175 YEARS OF CULINARY TRADITION

In 1849, the Boudin family struck culinary gold. Wild yeasts in the San Francisco air provided their traditional French bread with a unique tang, giving rise to The Original San Francisco Sourdough™. Today, the Boudin family's recipe lives on in the hands and heart of our expert bakers, with a portion of the original mother dough still starting each and every sourdough loaf we make.

From a tiny, old-world bake shop located on San Francisco's Dupont Street to our Flagship property at Fisherman's Wharf, Boudin has evolved to the state-of-the-art facilities and services we operate today – and emerged as San Francisco's oldest continuously operating business since 1849. Though much has changed since our boomtown beginnings, our bread recipe has not.
